TASTING NOTES

This is Balfour's most concentrated and powerful Pinot Noir yet and comes from single parcel within a single vineyard, from selected Dijon clones. The wine is beautifully structured, with prolonged ageing in new oak and is un-fined and un-filtered. The result is an extraordinary Pinot Noir that will surprise many.

Each Winemakers' Collection from Balfour Winery is the epitome of father and son team Owen and Fergus Elias' small batch winemaking philosophy; identifying small parcels of high quality fruit to create unique wines with distinct personalities.

The 2022 Collection consists of a trio of still wines – a red, a white and a rosé – and explores how the skilful use of oak can create English still wines with texture, weight, and finesse.

The labels for the 2022 Winemakers' Collection show the Hush Heath Manor gate house and are designed by British artist Henry Hudson.

THE ARTIST

Henry Hudson (1982) is a British artist who works across painting, sculpture, ceramics, installation and print-making. His unique style is expressed through the exploration of various techniques and materials, including plasticine, scagliola, oil painting, 3D printing, wax, sand and textiles. Hudson's work extends into the digital realm using the iPad, as in these imaginative labels specially commissioned for the 2022 Balfour Winemakers' Collection.
